

MATTHEW EAGLETON-PIERCE

St Antony's College
University of Oxford
Oxford, OX2 6JF, UK
Phone: +44 (0)7718 319368
Email: matthew.eagleton-pierce
@qeh.ox.ac.uk
Web: meagletonpierce.com

EMPLOYMENT

2009–2010 Departmental Lecturer in International Political Economy University of Oxford

- Teaching responsibilities in the Oxford Department for International Development:
 - Graduate core course 'Global Governance' (theory and contemporary debates): responsible for one seminar class.
 - Graduate option 'Global Financial Governance' (history and contemporary debates): responsible for one seminar class.
 - Graduate option 'International Relations of the Developing World' (history and contemporary debates): responsible for one seminar class.
 - Supervisor to seven graduate students.
- Designed and taught extra option course on 'Introduction to International Organisations' for seven visiting University of Georgia undergraduates.

2008–2009 LSE Fellow in International Political Economy London School of Economics and Political Science

- Teaching responsibilities in the Department of International Relations:
 - Graduate core course 'International Political Economy' (theory, history, contemporary debates): responsible for one seminar class.
 - Graduate option 'The Political Economy of International Trade' (history, trade economics, contemporary issues): course convener, responsible for two seminar classes, delivered eight lectures.
 - Undergraduate option 'The Politics of International Economic Relations' (theory, history, contemporary debates): responsible for one seminar class.
 - Supervisor to 23 students (14 graduates, six overseas visiting, three undergraduates).

2005–2008 International Relations Tutor University of Oxford

- Supervised undergraduate students taking 'International Relations' core course for Politics, Philosophy, and Economics.
- Supervised visiting students from Stanford University; designed course programme on 'Introduction to International Institutions' (2005).
- Presented annual revision and exam advice seminar at St Antony's College.

EDUCATION

2004–2008 DPhil (PhD) in International Relations St Antony's College, University of Oxford

- Thesis title: Uncovering Symbolic Power: Power Analysis, Southern Countries, and the World Trade Organization.
- Supervisor: Professor Kalypso Nicolaïdis. Examiners: Professor Andrew Hurrell (University of Oxford) and Professor Rorden Wilkinson (University of Manchester).
- Awarded Full Studentship from Economic and Social Research Council.

- 2002–2004 MPhil International Relations
St Antony’s College, University of Oxford
- Studied contemporary history of world politics, international relations theory, international political economy, international relations of Southern countries, and research methods.
 - Thesis title: You’ve Got Protest! Exploring Transnational Activism and Hacktivism, a study of the use of the internet within global social movements.
- 1998–2001 BA Geography
King’s College, University of London
 First Class Honours

PUBLICATIONS

My primary research interests are in the field of international political economy, the multilateral trading system (agriculture focus), the conceptual analysis of power and legitimacy, international relations theory, and political sociology. I have a particular interest in the work of Pierre Bourdieu.

Book proposal: Symbolic Power in the World Trade Organization (under consideration at Oxford University Press).

Book proposal: Keywords of Modern Political Discourse (drafted).

Article proposal: ‘The Competing Kings of Cotton’ (submitted to New Political Economy).

‘Examining the Case for Reflexivity in International Relations: Insights from Bourdieu’, Journal of Critical Globalization Studies, 1 (2009), 1: 111-123.

Co-Editor of three issues of the St Antony’s International Review:

‘The International Politics of Oil’ (2, 1, May 2006);

‘Human Security’ (1, 2, November 2005);

‘The Future of International Cooperation’ (1, 1, March 2005).

‘The Internet and the Seattle WTO Protests’, Peace Review, 13 (2001), 3: 331-337.

CONFERENCE PAPERS

- Forthcoming: ‘Uncovering Symbolic Power in the World Trade Organization’, Paper to be presented at International Studies Association Annual Convention, New Orleans, Feb 17-20, 2010.
- ‘Uncovering Symbolic Power in the World Trade Organization’, Paper presented at British International Studies Association Conference, University of Leicester, Dec 14-16, 2009.
- ‘Beyond Mere Symbolism: An Anatomy of Symbolic Power in the World Trade Organization’, Paper presented at WTO Scholars’ Forum, Faculty of Laws, University College London, Nov 25, 2009 (invited).
- ‘The Competing Kings of Cotton’, Paper presented at ODID Research Seminar, Oxford Department for International Development, Oxford, Oct 16, 2009.
- ‘Symbolic Power and Legitimation Strategies in the World Trade Organization’, Paper presented at Politics, Philosophy and Economics Annual Conference, New Orleans, Feb 27-28, 2009 (invited).
- ‘Unraveling the Received Idea of “Governance”’, Paper presented at Oxford-Science Po Joint Doctoral Workshop, Department of Politics and International Relations, Oxford, May 1, 2008.

- ‘The Competing Kings of Cotton’, Paper presented at International Studies Association Annual Convention, San Francisco, March 26-29, 2008.
- ‘Too Much Orthodoxy, Not Enough Heterodoxy: The EU’s Record in the Doha Round’, Paper presented at Workshop on European and Japanese Perspectives on Global Governance, Waseda University, Tokyo, Aug 31, 2007 (invited).
- ‘Symbolic Power and Institutional Change in the Trading Regime: Explaining the “Rise of the WTO” Via the “Fall of UNCTAD”’, Paper presented at Graduate Workshop in Political Science, Nuffield College, Oxford, May 17, 2007.
- ‘Politicising Re-form and the Reformers of the WTO System’, Paper presented at WTO Reform and the Role of the EU Seminar, European Studies Centre, Oxford, Oct 30, 2006.
- ‘The Kings of Cotton: Developing Countries and Strategic Framing in the WTO’, Paper presented at WTO Doctoral Workshop, Nuffield College, Oxford, Feb 23, 2006.
- ‘Challenging the Legitimation of Power in the WTO: Towards Enhanced Political Contestability and Reflexivity’, Paper presented at Endgame at the WTO: Reflections on the Doha Development Round Conference, Birmingham University, Nov 11-12, 2005 (invited).
- ‘Symbolic Power and Symbolic Violence in International Relations’, Paper presented at World International Studies Committee Conference, Istanbul, Aug 24-27, 2005.
- ‘Globally Integrated/Internally Disarticulated: A Critique of Conventional Development Wisdom’, Paper presented at Contemporary Challenges of Integration and Fragmentation Conference, Manchester University, June 16-17, 2005.
- ‘You’ve Got Protest! Internetworked Forms of Agency’, Paper presented at British International Studies Association Conference, Birmingham University, Dec 15-17, 2003.

RESEARCH ACTIVITIES

2007–2009

German Marshall Fund of the United States, Washington D.C.

Research Officer

- Awarded $25,000 to manage Oxford-based project entitled ‘Politics of WTO Reform: Debating US and EU Roles Towards Sustainable Development’.
- Managed and hosted events with high-level European Commission representatives and US Congressional staffers.
- Co-edited group publication (with Emily Jones and Kalypso Nicolaïdis) on ‘Building Blocks for a Global Trade Ethics’, featuring contributions from leading academics and trade analysts.

2006–2007

Global Economic Governance Programme, Oxford

Research Officer

- Collaborated with Professor Ngaire Woods in managing seminars and events; provided logistical support for researchers (including proofreading and editing).
- Research assistant for projects focused on international trade, including:
 - BBC World Service documentary (‘War by Other Means’, Jan 2007).
 - Institute for Public Policy Research publication (Ngaire Woods, ‘Power Shift: Do We Need Better Global Economic Institutions?’, Jan 2007).

2003–2006

St Antony’s International Review, Oxford

Founding Editor

- Coordinated establishment of graduate-run, academic journal of international affairs.
- Led the Editorial Committee, including devising call for papers, critically reviewing manuscripts for publication, and co-authoring the editorial introduction for each issue.

- Coordinated and oversaw the relationships between the Managing Director, Treasurer, Copy Editor, Art Director, and Associate Editors for Sales and Production.
- Negotiated and sustained healthy relationships with senior actors within St Antony's College, the University, and external advisors and sponsors. Notable collaborations included:
 - Funding awards for over £9000 from St Antony's College;
 - Sponsorship award of £1300 from the Foreign Policy Centre for a London launch event;
 - Partnership with Blackwell bookshop in Oxford and agreement on multi-store distribution and advertising.
- Hosted and organised issue launch events and other special events, including at Blackwell.

2006 Foreign Policy Centre, London

Associate

- Assisted in event management and advising on projects related to political economy themes.

2003-2004 Research Assistant and IT Support, Oxford

- Ad-hoc work for Professor Kalypso Nicolaidis and Professor Timothy Garton Ash.

IT SKILLS

Microsoft Office: Word, Excel, Access (advanced), Adobe InDesign (advanced), HTML and web publishing (moderate).

REFEREES

1.
Professor Kalypso Nicolaidis
Director of the European Studies Centre and University Professor in International Relations, St Antony's College, Oxford, OX2 6JF
Email: kalypso.nicolaidis@sant.ox.ac.uk
Tel: 01865 274470
2.
Dr Joerg Friedrichs
University Lecturer in Politics and Director of the MSc in Global Governance and Diplomacy, St Cross College, St Giles, Oxford, OX1 3JP
Email: joerg.friedrichs@qeh.ox.ac.uk
Tel: 01865 281820
3.
Dr Robert Falkner
Senior Lecturer in International Relations, London School of Economics and Political Science, Houghton Street, London, WC2A 2AE
Email: r.falkner@lse.ac.uk
Tel: 020 7955 6347
4.
Professor Ngaire Woods
Director of the Global Economic Governance Programme and University Professor in International Political Economy, University College, Oxford, OX1 4BH
Email: ngaire.woods@univ.ox.ac.uk
Tel: 01865 276630